Recommended materials are marked with ‘ ★ ’

Misconceptions, Myths and Cautionary notes about Flipped Classrooms:

Evolution of Flipped Classrooms:

Infographics and Videos on Flipped Classrooms:

- Flipped High School—The Students’ Perspective. (n.d.). Retrieved November 18, 2015, from http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=5BTRk7yMmdA

Blogs:

- How to FLIP your class...in 4 basic steps. (2013, March 4). Retrieved November 18, 2015, from http://blog.peerinstruction.net/2013/03/04/how-to-flip-your-class-in-4-basic-steps/

Tools & Tips for Implementing Flipped Classrooms:

Resources from Other Institutions:

★ The Flipped Institute:

The Flipped Institute (http://flippedinstitute.org/) is an entire organisation dedicated to sharing educational resources on the flipped classroom model. Its mission is to “[serve] as an online resource to provide self-help and other assistance to benefit teachers moving from a traditional classroom lecture model to a flipped model.”

Helpful features:

- “Overview” tab—if you ever need an impressively well-made, engaging video to share about flipped classrooms, look no further! “Flipping the Classroom: Explained” is a one and a half minute stop motion that will blow you away with its simply-explained and adorably portrayed idea of what a flipped classroom is and looks like!

- “How to Flip” tab—handholds you step-by-step through the process with downloadable PDF resources for each step.

- “Resources” tab—furnished with content from across the web, this is one of the most extensive and carefully curated resource for flipping your class.

From University of Texas at Austin’s Learning Sciences:

From The University of Queensland’s Institute for Teaching and Learning Innovation:

From Vanderbilt University’s Center for Teaching:

From The Daily Riff:

3 educators co-write a 3-part article about flipped classrooms, each of them with varied teaching experiences and individual work done on flipped classrooms. Click in below for to access the individual parts:

Reference Resources:

